Prelude

Welcome

Call to Worship

Leader: We are gathered on this day to worship God, Whose ways are not our ways, and we're thankful for that!

People: We worship God, Who has seen our hearts and souls and lives, and Who has brought us Salvation in Jesus!

Gathering Hymn #340 (UMH) Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy

Community Prayer Creator of our Time and our Labors, of our Emotions and our Hearts, and of our Souls and Responses; Open our hearts that we would be present to You in our worship this day. You are the One Who saves us in Christ Jesus. Lord, so often we look around, and are tempted to be dissatisfied with our circumstances, especially when we compare them to others. We know how we experience what it is to be fair, and what it is to be treated fairly. This has come from our experience in life. Forgive us when we use our own experiences to try and negate Your divine purposes and experiences in order to satisfy our own dissatisfactions, or in order to keep our own, human ideas of fairness. Your perspective is eternal and infinite, ours is limited and finite. Grow us to see with Your eyes, and with Your perspective. We want to see situations and complications and people, especially people, as You see them. We pray this to You, oh God, by the power of the Holy Spirit, and in the name of Jesus, our Sovereign Savior. Amen.

Scripture of God's Providence Psalm 105: 1-6

Hymn of Reflection #396 (UMH) O Jesus, I Have Promised

Children's Time Jennifer Sullivan, Christian Formation Director
